CHAPTER ONE INTRODUCTION
PURPOSE	1-1
AUTHORITY	1-1
SCOPE	1-2
ORGANIZATION OF THE PLAN	1-2
METHODOLOGY	1-4
Use of a Consultant for Land Use Plan Preparation	1-4
Community Participation Efforts	1-4
General Analytical Approaches	1-4
PUBLIC AND AGENCY CONSULTATION	1-5
CHAPTER TWO EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
PURPOSE	2-1
COMMUNITY ISSUES AND PRIORITIES	2-1
THE ECONOMY	2-2
The Economic Base of Carbon County	2-2
General	2-2
Direct and Indirect Expenditures Within the Carbon County Economy	2-2
Contribution to the Revenue Base of Carbon County	2-3
Other Sectors of the Carbon County Economy	2-3
General	2-3
Construction	2-5
Other Manufacturing	2-5
Service Sector	2-5
Prospects for Future Stability and Growth in the Carbon County Economy	2-5
Continued Availability of Federal and State Lands for Multiple Use Management	2-5
Economic Diversity	2-5
Economic Relationship Between Carbon County Communities	2-6
Need for a Carbon County Economic Development Plan	2-6
POPULATION	2-7
Regional Population Distribution	2-9
ENVIRONMENT	2-9

LAND USES		2-10
Introduction		2-10
Agriculture		2-11
Anticipated Demand for Agricultural Land		2-11
Recommended Areas for Commercial Agricultural Expansion		2-12
Residential		2-12
Anticipated Demand for Residential Land		2-12
General		2-12
Housing for State Department of Corrections Personnel		2-12
Temporary Housing for Maximum Security Prison Construction Workers		2-12
Temporary Housing for Oil and Gas Exploration Workers		2-13
Housing for New Transportation Labor Force Associated with the Planned Elk Mountain Mine		2-13
Housing for Underground Miners Associated with the Elk Mountain Mine		2-14
Rural Residential Properties		2-14
Recommended Areas for Future Residential Expansion		2-15
Urban Residential Expansion Areas		2-15
Suburban Residential Expansion Areas		2-15
Rural Residential Expansion Areas		2-16
Mountain and Remote Residential Expansion Areas		2-16
Industrial		2-17
Timber Industry		2-17
Anticipated Demand for Industrial Land		2-17
Recommended Areas for Industrial Expansion		2-17
Underground Coal Mining		2-18
Anticipated Demand for Industrial Land		2-18
Recommended Areas for Industrial Expansion		2-18
Surface Coal Mining		2-18
Anticipated Demand for Industrial Land		2-18
Recommended Areas for Industrial Expansion		2-19
Other Mining Opportunities		2-19
Sand and Gravel		2-19
Limestone		2-19
Bentonite		2-19
Uranium		2-20
Decorative and Dimensional Stone		2-20
Zeolite		2-20
Hardrock Minerals		2-20
Oil and Gas Industry		2-21
Anticipated Demand for Industrial Land		2-21
Recommended Areas for Industrial Expansion		2-21
Other Light Industrial Activities		2-23
Anticipated Demand for lands to Support Light Industrial Activities		2-23
Recommended Areas for Industrial Expansion		2-23
Commercial		2-24
Visitor Industry		2-24
Anticipated Demand for Commercial Land		2-24
Recommended Areas for Commercial Expansion		2-24
Transportation		2-24
Anticipated Demand for Commercial Land		2-24
Recommended Areas for Commercial Expansion		2-25

CHAPTER THREE COMMUNITY ISSUES AND PRIORITIES
INTRODUCTION		3-1

RESIDENT SURVEY		3-1
Methodology		3-1
Characteristics of Survey Respondents		3-2
Sample Size		3-2
Place of Residence in Carbon County		3-2
Age of Respondents and Length of Residence		3-2
Reasons Why Respondents Originally Came to Carbon County		3-4
What Motivates Respondents to Remain in Carbon County		3-4
Expected Length of Residency in Carbon County		3-4
General Land Use Issues and Priorities		3-7
Water Resource Development Options for the Little Snake River Area		3-7
The Balance Between Resource Conservation and Resource Development		3-10
Ranching		3-10
Timber Resources		3-10
Oil and Gas Resources		3-13
Recreation		3-13
Land Use Management		3-13
Commercial Harvest of Timber in the Medicine Bow National Forest		3-13
Public Recreation on Federal Lands in Carbon County		3-20
Mining on Federal Lands in Carbon County		3-20
Conservation of Fish and Wildlife Habitat and Water Resources		3-20
Oil and Gas Exploration and Production on Federal Lands		3-20
Residential Expansion on Private Lands in Unincorporated Areas of County		3-20
The Development of Commercial Facilities on Private Lands		3-21
Industrial Investment and Development of Private Lands		3-21
Development of Visitor Accommodations on Private Lands		3-21
Recreational Access		3-22
Involvement of Carbon County in Federal Land Decisions and the Enforcement of County Zoning		3-22
Future Population and Economic Growth in the Next 20 Years		3-22
RANCH SURVEY		3-23
Methodology		3-23
Characteristics of Survey Respondents		3-23
Sample Size		3-23
Location of Responding Ranches in Carbon County		3-24
Length of Ranch Operation		3-24
Ranch Ownership		3-24
Size of Ranch Operations		3-24
Reliance Upon Federal Lands for Ranching		3-24
Cattle Production in 1995		3-26
Sheep Production		3-26
Other Activities That Support People Living and Working on Local Ranches		3-26
Contribution of Ranching to the Carbon County Economy		3-26
Sources of Income from Other Ranch Activities		3-27
Future Plans of Ranches in Carbon County		3-27
Changes in the Relationship with the U.S. Bureau of Land Management and the U. S. Forest Service		3-27
Participation of Carbon County in Federal Allotment Decisions		3-31

SMALL BUSINESS OWNER SURVEY		3-31
Methodology		3-31
Characteristics of Survey Respondents		3-31
Sample Size		3-31
Location of Responding Small Businesses in Carbon County		3-32
Length of Small Business Ownership		3-32
Type of Small Businesses Represented by Survey Respondents		3-32
Contribution of Small Business Operations to the Carbon County Economy		3-34
Constraints to Small Business Operations in Carbon County		3-34
Future Viability of Small Business in Carbon County		3-34
The Focus of Future Economic Development		3-38
PUBLIC MEETINGS		3-38
Methodology		3-38
March 18, 1996, Public Meeting – Medicine Bow		3-39
March 19, 1996, Public Meeting – Baggs		3-41
March 20, 1996, Public Meeting – Rawlins		3-42
March 21, 1996, Public Meeting – Saratoga		3-45
August 7, 1996, Public Meeting – Elk Mountain		3-46
August 8, 1996, Public Meeting – Sinclair		3-48
August 19, 1996, Public Meeting – Baggs		3-50
August 20, 1996, Public Meeting – Encampment		3-52
SUMMARY OF COMMUNITY ISSUES AND PRIORITIES		3-54
Resource Management by the U.S. Forest Service and the Bureau of Land Management		3-54
Grazing Allotments		3-54
Forest Management		3-55
Economic Viability of the Carbon County Economy		3-55
Resource Conservation of Land, Water and Wildlife Resources		3-55
CHAPTER FOUR ECONOMY
GENERAL		4-1
METHODOLOGY		4-2
TIMBER INDUSTRY		4-2
General Status		4-2
The Hammer Mill		4-2
Louisiana-Pacific Mill		4-4
Western Wood Products		4-5
Contribution to the Carbon County Economy		4-5
Direct Employment and Expenditures		4-5
Indirect Employment and Expenditures		4-5
Contribution to the Revenue Base of Carbon County		4-6
Potential Constraints/Opportunities Impacting Future Timber Industry Activity		4-6
Availability of Raw timber for Commercial Harvesting		4-6
Sustainability of National Forest Areas		4-10
Timber Sale Prices		4-10
Commodity Prices and the Relationship to Gross Margin		4-12
Potential Industry Expansion		4-12

MINING INDUSTRY		4-12
General		4-12
Underground Coal Mining		4-13
General Status		4-13
Contribution to the Carbon County Economy		4-13
Direct Employment and Expenditures		4-13
Indirect Employment and Expenditures		4-13
Potential Economic Impact of Mine Closure		4-15
Contribution to the Revenue Base of Carbon County		4-15
Potential Constraints/Opportunities Impacting Underground Coal Mining Activity		4-16
Cost of Production		4-16
Production Volumes and Labor Productivity		4-16
Sales Price		4-16
Ad Valorem and Severance Taxes		4-17
Potential Industry Expansion		4-17
Cyprus-Shoshone Plans		4-17
Arch Coal, Inc. Plans		4-17
Surface Coal Mining		4-18
General Status		4-18
Existing Production		4-18
Proposed Expansion into the Carbon Basin		4-18
Contribution to the Carbon County Economy		4-19
Direct Employment and Expenditures		4-19
Indirect Employment and Expenditures		4-19
Economic Implications of the Proposed Elk Mountain Mine		4-20
Contribution to the Revenue Base of Carbon County		4-21
Potential Constraints/Opportunities Impacting Surface Coal Mining Activity		4-21
Past Investment Commitments in Carbon County		4-21
Cost of Production		4-22
Productivity and Production Volumes		4-22
Market Demand		4-23
Sales Price		4-23
Potential Industry Expansion		4-23
AGRICULTURE		4-24
General Status		4-24
Contribution to the Carbon County Economy		4-25
Direct Employment and Expenditures		4-25
Indirect Employment and Expenditures		4-26
Contribution to the Revenue Base of Carbon County		4-26
Potential Constraints/Opportunities Impacting Future Ranch Activity		4-26
Range Conditions and Use of Local Grasses		4-26
Sales Prices and Volumes		4-27
Reliance Upon Federal Lands for Summer Pasture		4-27
Summer Lease of Pasture		4-28
Supplemental Income from Sheep Production		4-28
Absentee Ownership of Local Ranches		4-29
The Future Sale of Ranch Properties		4-29
Potential Industry Expansion		4-30

OIL AND GAS PRODUCTION		4-30
General Status		4-30
Production		4-30
Processing Facilities and Product Transportation System		4-31
Contribution to the Carbon County Economy		4-33
Direct Employment and Expenditures		4-33
Sinclair Refinery		4-33
Gas Processing Operations		4-33
Oil and Gas Producers		4-33
Indirect Employment and Expenditures		4-34
Contribution to the Revenue Base of Carbon County		4-35
General		4-35
Ad Valorem Revenues		4-35
Severance Tax Revenues		4-35
Potential Constraints/Opportunities Impacting Future Oil and Gas Activities		4-36
Resource Potential		4-36
Future Demand for Natural Gas from the Central Rocky Mountain Region		4-36
Drilling Efficiency		4-37
Environmental Regulations and Its Impact Upon Profitability		4-37
Access to Prospective Exploration and Production Areas		4-37
Potential Industry Expansion		4-37
TRANSPORTATION		4-38
General Status		4-38
Union Pacific Railroad		4-38
Truck Stops		4-40
Contribution to the Carbon County Economy		4-40
Union Pacific Railroad		4-40
Truck Stops		4-40
Cumulative Direct Expenditures of the Transportation Industry		4-40
Indirect Employment and Expenditures		4-41
Contribution to the Revenue Base of Carbon County		4-41
Potential Constraints/Opportunities Impacting Rail and Ground Transportation		4-41
The Demand for the Movement of Freight		4-41
Prospects of Future Rail Traffic Through Carbon County and Related Employment		4-43
The Availability of Trucking Services		4-43
The Quality of Roadway Pavement Along Interstate 80		4-44
Potential Industry Expansion		4-44
TOURISM		4-45
General Status		4-45
Contribution to the Carbon County Economy		4-45
Direct Employment and Personal Income Derived from Visitor Accommodations		4-45
Indirect Employment and Income		4-45
Visitor Expenditures		4-46
Contribution to the Revenue Base of Carbon County		4-46
State Lodging Tax		4-46
State Sales Tax		4-46
Potential Constraints/Opportunities that Influence the Visitor Industry		4-47
Lack of Information Concerning Visitor Characteristics		4-47
Available Data from the Wyoming Visitor Survey of 1996		4-47
